

JESUS SERVES BREAKFAST TO THE DISCIPLES

(By the Sea of Galilee) — After Jesus came back from the dead, his followers (disciples) went back to their home country in Galilee. Some of them began to do what they had done before they first met Jesus. They went out on a boat on the Sea of Galilee (also call Lake Tiberias). They threw out their nets and tried to catch some fish.

After a whole night of fishing, the men hadn't caught anything. In the morning a stranger on the shore shouted to them to try again. It sounded as if the stranger knew where the fish would be. When the disciples did what he told them, they caught more fish than they could handle.

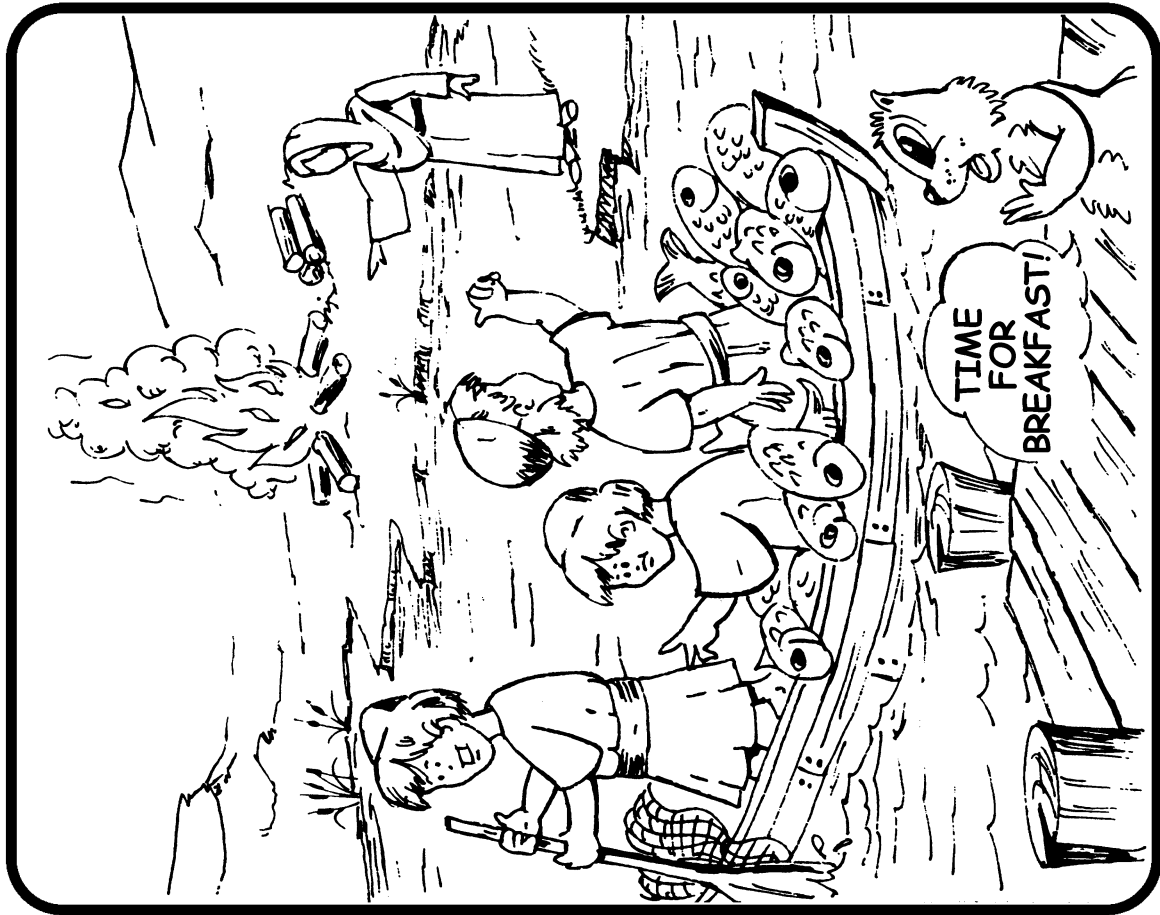

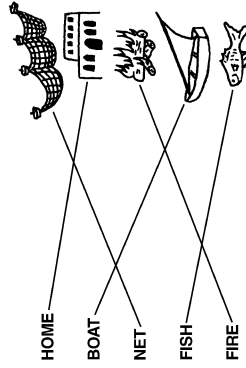

When they came back to shore they realized that the stranger was Jesus. He had a fire going and was ready to cook their fish for their breakfast.

ANSWERS

Draw the Story. Today's Gospel story tells about a time when Jesus' disciples went fishing and got a big surprise. Draw the story in four pictures. Use one space for each picture. The sentence below each space tells what to draw.

Disciples start fishing, catching nothing.	Stranger on shore tells them how to do it.
They obey, and catch many fish.	Jesus cooks the fish for breakfast.

Matching Game. Here are five words from today's Gospel story and five pictures to match. Draw a line from each word to the picture which matches it.
