

MARY VISITS HER COUSIN ELIZABETH

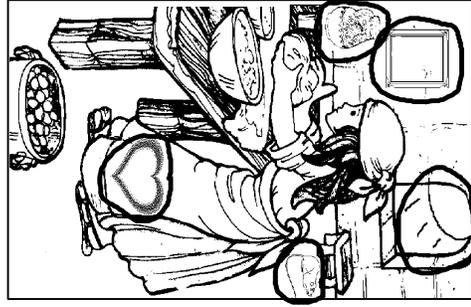

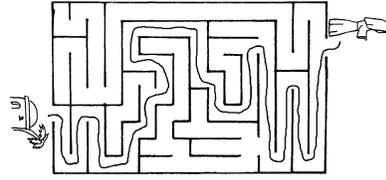

(The hill country of Judah) — Mary was a young woman from Nazareth, in the northern part of Palestine. She was going to have a baby soon. Before the baby came she decided to go to visit her cousin Elizabeth. Mary knew Elizabeth was going to have a baby too.

When Mary got to Elizabeth's house, they had a good visit. While Mary was there, Elizabeth told her how special it would be for Mary to have God's own Son for her child.

Mary was so thankful about what was going to happen to her that she sang a song to God. She thanked God for choosing her, just an ordinary girl from a small town. She wondered why God didn't want to use somebody else. She was surprised God didn't pick a princess instead!
